

Memorandum of Understanding

Between

Vrije Universiteit Brussel

And

Ankara University

To enhance the bilateral relationships, improve mutual understanding and develop academic exchanges, the Vrije Universiteit Brussel and Ankara University agree on the following:

1. Both institutions will develop exchange programs and collaboration based on mutual respect, reciprocal cooperation and friendship.
2. Both institutions will promote the exchange of relevant information concerning teaching, development and scientific research.
3. Both institutions will encourage the exchange of visits of faculty members from both universities.
4. In the framework of the agreement, both institutions will encourage scholar/student exchange for their research and study in accordance with the respective rules of each institution.
5. Both institutions should seek financial support from their respective government or appropriate foundations to implement this agreement.
6. Both institutions will seek to develop further forms of cooperation and exchange including possible joint training/degree programs for the students.
7. This agreement will remain in effect for a period of three years from the date of the last signature. It may be revised, extended or terminated by mutual consent in written form by the two parties.
8. If any party wants to terminate the agreement, it should inform the other party in written forms at least six months in advance. Termination of the agreement will not affect participants of exchange programs already in progress.
9. The execution measures of this MoU will be subject of specific programme agreements, which have to be approved by the representatives of the universities or by their delegates.
