

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING ON ACADEMIC EXCHANGES
BETWEEN ANKARA UNIVERSITY, REPUBLIC OF TURKEY AND KAGOSHIMA UNIVERSITY, JAPAN

In order to encourage academic exchange and collaboration between our two universities, and to advance teaching and research in our respective institutions, Ankara University, Republic of Turkey and Kagoshima University, Japan make the following agreement.

1. Both universities agree to develop and pursue the following cooperative educational and research activities.
  - 1.1 exchange of teaching and research personnel
  - 1.2 exchange of administrative and other professional personnel
  - 1.3 exchange of students
  - 1.4 collaboration in educational and research projects
  - 1.5 exchange of academic publications, data and information
2. Both universities, based on the principles of respect for each other's regulations and systems, agree to carry out these activities after full consultation and approval.
3. In any cooperative activities under this memorandum, each university will be primarily responsible for financially supporting its own involvement in the activities.
4. The intellectual property rights that arise as a result of any collaborative research or activity under this memorandum will be detailed on a case-to-case basis and in consistence with the intellectual property right policies of both universities.
5. For educational and research activities under this memorandum, mutual consent will be reached and associated documents will be signed by both parties as appropriate.
6. This memorandum is effective from the date signed for the duration of five years. It will be automatically extended for a duration of another five years unless one party proposes the termination of the memorandum.
7. This memorandum may be amended or terminated by mutual consent, if proposed by either party. For the amendment or termination, either party should give three months notice in writing to the other party.
8. This memorandum has been prepared and signed as two originals in English by both parties. Both universities agree that these duplicate versions are authentic.
