

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

Between

ANKARA UNIVERSITY

And

SUNGSHIN UNIVERSITY

This Agreement is entered into by and between Ankara University, located in Ankara, Turkey and Sungshin University located in Seoul, Republic of Korea. The two universities share a common mission and vision of promoting international partnership in higher education. Both universities thereby agree to establish a relationship for the purposes noted below:

1. Exchange of students and faculty members
2. Promotion of academic activities; exchange of information; and research resources
3. Development of mutually beneficial programs

Specific details of the implementation of the above programs and other activities shall be negotiated and decided upon by the two institutions' mutual agreement. This Agreement shall come into effect upon signature of both parties and shall remain in effect for a period of five (5) years. Both institutions intend to review this Agreement every five years to evaluate the progress and the quality of mutual cooperation. Thereafter, it may be extended for additional five year periods only by the written consent of both institutions.

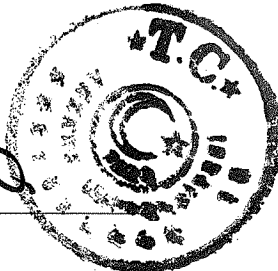

This Agreement can be amended by written mutual consent of both institutions after mutual consultation and negotiation. In the case of any discrepancies arising from this Agreement, either institution may request for termination with a six (6) months' written notice to the other institution. However, the termination of this Agreement shall not affect the completion of studies of students already approved under this Agreement prior to such termination.
