

ACADEMIC COOPERATION PROTOCOL BETWEEN ANKARA UNIVERSITY, TURKEY AND UNIVERSITY OF CHILE, CHILE

I

Ankara University and University of Chile agree with this protocol, to cooperate in academic as well as cultural areas of collaboration.

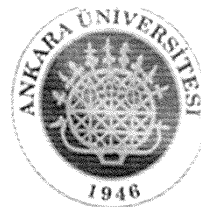

II

The two parties agree to take required steps to enable the following:

1. Both parties will strive to share their academic knowledge and experiences in order to find solutions to the scientific problems of mutual interest.
2. Both parties will facilitate academic staff exchange for scientific purposes; lectures, research, as well as meetings and similar activities.
3. Both parties will encourage student exchange in available fields.
4. Books, other various publications and materials to be used for education, training and research purposes will be exchanged.
5. Both parties will facilitate joint research projects and the organization of joint scientific meetings in the fields of common interest.

III

Details concerning exchange of academic staff and/or students such as yearly quotas, duration of stay, fees etc. will be defined in a separately prepared working program. A similar program may also be prepared for the implementation of the aforementioned joint research projects.

IV

The collaboration involves the organization and respect of the following modalities:

Each institution should designate a person (researcher, teacher or administrative) responsible for monitoring the planned actions.

The parties will consult whenever it is necessary, and make, as far as possible, meetings in order to analyze an initial evaluation of the actions realized and in progress. The evaluation shall be communicated to the person in charge of the international relations of each institution in order to inform the authorities and the competent supervisors.

V

Regarding financing, each project or activity will be financed separately, depending on availability of resources.

The parties involved will make an effort to include in their respective budgets the necessary means for the implementation of this Agreement and, if necessary, to request resources to other agencies for cultural exchanges according to the financial resources of the institutions.

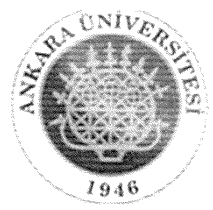

VI

The use, ownership and licensing of any intellectual property created by University of Ankara's faculty, staff or students shall be owned by the latter as the case may be. The same principle applies for intellectual property created by University of Chile's faculty, staff or students.

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as conferring rights to use in advertising, publicity, or otherwise the name of the Parties or any of their logos, trademarks, or similar without prior written approval.
